

CAREER

OPPORTUNITIES

News Videographer

CHCH TV

CHCH is a market leader in southern Ontario producing more than 80 hours a week of News and Information programming, more than any other local station in North America

This notification will serve to inform that there will be a position available starting January 13, 2012 in the CHCH News department for a News Videographer for a fixed term of one year to cover a maternity leave.

The following is a paraphrase of the primary functions and does not outline all of the duties and responsibilities for this position:

- Shoot, Edit and Report news and information stories
- Write Scripts & Conduct Research
- Initiate story ideas
- Develop and Maintain contacts
- Other duties as required

The ideal candidate must possess:

- At least six months of on-air experience in a major market
- At least six months of shooting and editing experience
- A demonstrable ability to report live and ad lib smoothly and accurately
- A keen eye for visuals and a clear sense of storytelling
- A demo reel exhibiting major-market presentation excellence
- Superior spelling and grammar skills
- Superior organizational skills
- Must be prepared to work various shifts, including overnight, early morning and weekends
- A broadcast diploma or equivalent
- A valid driver's license and a clean driving record
- An enhanced driver's license or passport
- A working knowledge of ENPS and WSI
- Familiarity with current events in southern Ontario and beyond

This is a union position: Director, Functional Group G2, Classification Rate 11

Posting date: October 28, 2011 Application Deadline: November 7, 2011

Please send your resume and covering letter quoting reference # CHCH-10-14-11 in confidence to: hr@chch.com
(No Phone Calls Please)

Channel Zero is an equal opportunity employer dedicated to diversity in its workforce.

Channel Zero has emerged as one of the most successful independent broadcasters in Canada, creating two specialty channels – Movieola - The Short Film Channel and Silver Screen Classics. In 2009 Channel Zero acquired two additional channels: CHCH-TV in Hamilton and CJNT-TV in Montreal. CHCH is a television station with a proud 50+ year history and a very exciting future ahead. With a strong professional skill base and original vision, Channel Zero has, and continues to expand the television channel boundaries in Canada and abroad – through creative and innovative programming, promotion and exhibition.

