

NPAAMB Aims & Priorities

AIMS & PRIORITIES OF NPAAMB

“...providing of Employment and Training support to build a strong and vibrant labour market that will enhance URBAN ABORIGINAL YOUTH as they become the leaders of today, for a better tomorrow”

- To establish a stable and prosperous socio-economic environment for Aboriginal people by improving the Employment conditions of the present generations thereby reducing the demand on Aboriginal Human Resource Development Strategy in the future
- To encourage, to improve and monitor employment equity
- To ensure training meets current and future employment standards and market needs
- To facilitate employment and training programs and service the area Aboriginal infrastructures
- To design, develop and implement policies in order to address the needs and priorities of our Aboriginal communities
- To develop an equitable funding mechanism relevant to the needs of our Aboriginal communities
- To ensure that a holistic concept be adopted in the facilitation in implementation to successfully achieve our mandate