

Ray W. Johnson

200 Hill Street
Brantford, ON N2L 555

(555) 555-5555
rayjohn@hotmail.com

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science, Environmental Sciences, emphasis Natural Science
Western University, London June 20xx

Relevant Course Work: Water Quality and Waste Water Management, Hydrology, Soil Science, Air Pollution, Bioremediation, Gaming Simulations of the Environment, Statistics Environmental Impact Reports, Remote Sensing, and Mathematics through Integral Calculus.

EXPERIENCE

Ecology Intern April 20xx-
Department of Parks and Recreation June 20xx
London, ON

- Surveyed 20 miles of waste water at Glen Helen Regional Park.
- Designed and administered a study involving aquatic and terrestrial habitats.
- Authored a pamphlet incorporating survey information for use on a nature trail which increased park visitors by 25% over the previous year.

Laboratory Assistant September 20xx-
Biology Department December 20xx
Western University, London

- Prepared enzyme material from muscle tissue.
- Worked with pH meters, ultracentrifuge, gas chromatograph, fraction collector, and analytical balance.
- Maintained laboratory equipment for a team of 10 scientists

Held various other summer and part-time jobs in construction.
Earned 70% of college expenses.

ACTIVITIES & HONORS

Environmental Sciences Student Organization Committees--President
International Oceanographic Foundation--Co-Founder
Natural History Foundation of San Bernardino--Volunteer
Dean's List

COMPUTER SKILLS

Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Access), GIS applications and Internet

LANGUAGES

Fluent in English & French

REFERENCES

Available upon request